The enrolment of foreign citizens (from non-EU countries) to study programs in Romanian language is only on a fee-paying basis, on own expense. The admission is based on the selection of applications, but the University of Medicine and Pharmacy of Craiova reserves its own right, depending on the number of candidates, to organize an examination of general knowledge of human anatomy and physiology, in accordance with the guidelines set by the Ministry of Health regarding the constraints generated by the epidemiological context at the time of the examination itself.

Foreign citizens are persons who have the nationality of a non-EU country, as certified by a valid passport.

For citizens who are members of the European Union, of the states belonging to the European Economic Area and of the Swiss Confederation, admission to undergraduate university studies, Romanian language programmes, is carried out under the same conditions as for Romanian citizens (admission based on examination).

Admission to undergraduate studies may be organized in one or two sessions before the start of the academic year.
